FOR FARMERS.

VALUABLE Periodicals for Free Distribution From the State University.

The University of Tennessee, at Knoxville, has of late established in connection with its other valuable branches an agricultural experiment station.

The station has good facilities for analyzing and testing fertilizers, cattle foods, milk and dairy products; seeds, with reference to their purity or germinating power; for identifying grasses and weeds; and studying forage plants; for investigating the diseases of fruits and fruit trees, grains and other useful plants; for making reports on injurious insects and the best means of combating them.

The Board of Control of the station is composed of O. P. Temple, H. R. Armstrong, James Park, D. D. H. Craighead, J. W. Gant, treasurer; James Conforth, The station council is composed of its officers: Charles W. Dahney, Jr., Ph. D., director; Charles S. Plumb, B. S., assistant director; W. E. Stone, Ph. D., chemist; F. L. Scribner, botanist; E. Sumner, B. S., entomologist; R. J. Cummings, farm foreman; W. N. Price, assistant.

In order to place the results of the experiments before the farmers of the State, bulletins will be issued at least quarterly, as nice, illustrated pamphlets. These bulletins are designed for free distribution, and to this end the names of all persons actually engaged in agriculture in Tennessee are desired. That 7,000 copies have already been sent, and the remainder are requested to do so at once.

Distinguished Tourists.

New York, May 4.—Today a fleet of outgoing trans-Atlantic steamers included the Ausonia, La Bourgogne, the Dromada and the Vesuvius. Whitelaw Reid, the new Minister to France, with his family and servants, were on board the French liner and Samuel R. Thayer, Minister to Netherlands, was on the Vesuvius. All steamers left with the determination to keep a sharp lookout for the Neva, nothing having been heard of her up to 11 o'clock a.m. today. The officials of the line think she will be sighted today or tomorrow.

The Denmark Sails.

LONDON, May 1.—The steamer Denmark, from New York for London, passed the Lizard last evening.

The steamer Saale, from New York, arrived at Bremerhaven last evening.

The steamer Kansus, from Boston for Liverpool, passed Kinsale today.

The steamer Elfrida, from New York April 27 for Liverpool, arrived at Queenstown at 1 o'clock p.m., May 4. The time of her voyage was 9 days, 15 hours and 18 minutes.

A Big Fire in St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 4.—About one-half the extensive soap and candle factory of Schneider Brothers & Powell at Bartet and Kosciusko streets was destroyed by fire between 2 and 3 o'clock this morning. Loss, $25,000 to $100,000. Insured.

Mr. A. K. Hawkes:

DEAR SIR—I take great pleasure in saying that after having worn my new crystallized lenses for the greater part of two years, am much improved with their superiority, and take pleasure in communicating this to you for your own perfect sight where it is possible. Respectfully yours, ALEXANDER HAWKES, Bishop Episcopal Church and Chancellor of the University of the South.

THE GREAT EVANGELIST PENN WRITES.

Mr. A. K. Hawkes:

DEAR SIR—Your patient crew, as received some fine glass, and am very much gratified at the excellent change, that has come over my eyesight since using your lenses. I am now able to see clearly without glasses, and my sight is gradually growing stronger.

ED. D. STEINREIMER, Secretary Stationers' Board of Trade.

THE EXCHANGE ORGANIZED.

Farmers of Arkansas, Mississippi and Tennessee all Right.

The Farmers' Exchange is now one of the institutions of Memphis.

An organization was duly effected yesterday morning at the office of Mr. F. T. Edmonson.

A large number of farmers came together for the purpose of launching the craft in response to an understanding reached two weeks ago. They were present from Arkansas, Mississippi and Tennessee, and a tacit agreement prevailed that in the organization all the States should be given a place. This was made the order of the meeting on motion of Mr. H. L. Bedford. Under this decision Messrs. J. F. Smith and H. L. Armstrong, of Arkansas, and Mr. D. M. Dockery, of Tennessee, were elected directors; Messrs. M. Blasher and D. M. Dockery were chosen from Mississippi, and the following six from Tennessee: Messrs. J. F. Ferguson, A. T. McKinney, H. L. Bedford, J. F. Farrow, G. Greer and R. D. Goodwin. Mr. F. T. Edmonson was unanimously elected attorney for the institution.

The secretary's report showed a total membership of 123. The following new members were admitted since the last meeting: Messrs. J. B. P. M. Dickerson, H. A. McNeely, H. Covard, Z. White, S. A. Douglas, H. L. Armstrong, R. O. Johnson, J. P. Wallace, W. A. Crossett, G. L. Folger, J. T. Malone, J. N. Brown and W. L. Harvey.

Another meeting will be held in two weeks for the purpose of passing on the by-laws of the association, after which the directors will immediately apply for articles of incorporation.
